GIOIA

OVERVIEW.

Step aboard GIOIA and feel her name come to life (GIOIA means 'joy' in Italian). At 43m (141ft), this 2024 build is all about celebrating life at sea. With her blend of timeless style and contemporary comfort, she's your private retreat on the water.

Across three decks, GIOIA is made for both togetherness and tranquility. On the sun deck, soak in the raised jacuzzi as the horizon stretches ahead, then dry off on the surrounding sun pads with a cocktail in hand. A few steps down there's a shaded lounge for lazy afternoons, while the sit-up bar plays host to some creative mixology. By evening, the upper aft deck transforms into a stage for long dinners under the stars, followed by relaxed conversations in deep, inviting sofas.

For the best views in the house, head to the foredeck – the perfect spot for sunrise coffee as the world wakes around you, or an afternoon apéritif with the sea sparkling below.

Inside, GIOIA's interiors are warm and inviting. Light-filled and welcoming, they pair polished marbles and rich woods with a soft, contemporary touch. The main deck lounge invites sociable moments with its bar and seating areas, while the sky lounge one deck up is a snug but spacious living room with panoramic views and an easy flow out onto the upper aft deck.

Accommodation for up to 12 guests is beautifully designed. The main deck master suite commands sweeping views from a central king bed, with its own lounge, dressing room, and a marble bathroom that feels like a spa retreat. Below, two double and two twin cabins with pullmans – each with en suite – ensure every guest feels equally indulged.

When adventure calls, GIOIA delivers with a treasure chest of toys and tenders – a 38ft Intrepid chase tender and a 20.5ft Williams jet tender – all orchestrated by her experienced crew of nine.
