SANTOSHA

OVERVIEW.

Fresh from her delivery, SANTOSHA is the stunning first of Heesen's new 57m series, boasting eye-catching lines and exquisite styling from Omega Architects and Harrison Eidsgaard. Designed for both elegance and comfort, SANTOSHA is sure to capture attention wherever she goes.

Winner of the 2025 BOAT Design & Innovation 'Outstanding Exterior Design' award, the name SANTOSHA is Sanskrit for contentment – a perfect embodiment of the serene and luxurious experiences she promises to deliver.

SANTOSHA's sun deck is the perfect spot for all-day entertainment, with a bar and large dining table conveniently positioned under a hardtop, plus sun pads and a jacuzzi for relaxation at sea. For dinners under the stars head to the main deck, while the Portuguese deck area in front of the bridge is the best seat in the house for breakfast with a view.

The interiors are free-flowing and contemporary, with materials like wood and leather creating a warm ambiance and matched with metallic accents, dark pewter, and glossy veneers. Among many amazing features, guests will also enjoy effortless access to all decks via a sleek stainless steel and glass elevator.

The upper deck features a lounge and bar, while the main deck is where guests can find the main dining and lounge areas. On the lower deck, a gym converts into a massage area to provide guests with a space for fitness and relaxation.

For 12 lucky guests, SANTOSHA offers the ultimate retreat. Six luxurious cabins await, but the standout is undoubtedly the main deck master located forward and boasting endless views from large windows.
