XASTERIA

OVERVIEW.

This stunning Perini Navi, built for a prominent yachting family, is now offered for a charter for the first time. Immaculately presented and maintained, XASTERIA offers elegant sophistication in a relaxed environment.

The spacious main saloon is tastefully decorated in contemporary style with top quality fabrics and with several seating choices. A separate dining lounge comfortably seats 12 guest for fine dining.

Five large guest cabins are located on the lower deck. The spacious full beam owner's suite has an adjoining lounge and study together with ensuite his/her bathrooms, one with a tub plus there is a sauna. Additionally there are two double and two twin guest cabins (both twins have additional pullman beds), all with en suite facilities.

On the main deck aft, a large round dining table seats 12 guests in a shaded setting, whilst a low seating sofa arrangement compliments the charming feel of this area.

The flybridge has a generous sunbathing area, corner sofa seating and small dining table, making it perfect for guests who enjoy their chill out time.

XASTERIA's experienced and service oriented crew are ready to charm discerning charter clients cruising onboard this fabulous sailing yacht.
